FIRE CHIEF'S REPORT

I have inspected all equipment of the Newbury Fire Department and found it to be in good condition.

I have a suggestion I'd like to make concerning the fire house. Due to frost in the Spring, the foundation piers have moved considerably on the north side, also causing the side of the building to bulge out. I recommend that new piers be built, and the side of the building be put back in shape.

I also recommend that something be done about building temporary dams in brooks, where it would be a protection to properties, in the different sections of the town, at a very low cost.

There has been some discussions concerning dry hydrants in the past, but have done nothing about them. I would recommend that the Town build one, at the Esplanade, and see how satisfactory it would work out.

I want to thank the Selectmen for the cooperation they have shown in the past year, and I feel sure they will continue to cooperate with us in any problems, which may confront the Department in the future.

GEORGE E. CROTEAU,
Chief.

Fire Warden.

FIRE WARDEN'S REPORT

As the tempo of America's war effort mounts, demands upon its citizens for service become numerous and exacting. To some comes the call to arms; others to public service and still others to defense industries and organizations. No one can possibly escape if he would. All must bear a proportionate share of the burden and the sacrifice. Strong first line fronts on land, sea and in the air are needed and can be developed and maintained only if there is unity of purpose and common determination behind the home front.

As men are drawn into service the burden of carrying on rests more heavily upon those forced to remain at home. Here, team work becomes increasingly important because of constantly diminishing manpower. A general breakdown in essential local activities and law observance can only be prevented by whole hearted cooperation between citizens and leaders.

There is no field of endeavor where cooperation and compliance with law and regulation are more needed than that of forest fire control. The most effective and economical effort in this field of activity is that of prevention. The old adage "an ounce of prevention" being "worth a pound of cure" was never more aptly applied than to forest fire control.

The forest fire warden is, by law, the designated local leader in forest fire matters. He exercises his prerogatives and discharges his duties as such under the direction of the State Forester. There was never a time when the warden needed each citizen's good will and cooperation more than he does now. With manpower waning, fire prevention, through efficient preparation, care with fire and compliance with necessary regulations become a vital duty of citizenship.

For years efforts have been made to improve the usual bad Spring and Fall fire record. It was not until this year, however, that this problem was, to a great extent solved when permit burning was more rigidly restricted. Forest fire wardens were instructed not to issue permits except on rainy days. This plan worked out so well it has been decided to make it the established policy governing legal burning.

Everyone is well acquainted with the several civilian defense groups. Many of our fellow townsmen are serving in one or other of them. It is only recently, however, that the Office of Civilian Defense, recognizing the threat forest fires are to our timber facilities and resources and the possible disruption of war activities in critical areas, established the "Forest Fire Fighters Service". Its purpose is to provide fire fighters, equipped and trained, to strengthen the hand of the local forest fire warden; to acquaint the people in the area with their responsibility in fire prevention and suppression and to provide an opportunity for people in and near forested areas to participate in the war effort. The State Forester is the State Coordinator; the District Fire Chiefs are District Coordinators and the Warden is the local Coordinator. The Forest Fire Fighters Service personnel will be registered under the direction of the Office of Civilian Defense; it will be trained by the local warden and his assistants, aided by the District Chief. Individual citizens are urged to join this service group by applying to their local forest fire warden. By becoming a part of this organization locally, individuals can contribute their share toward the protection of our forest resources which are so vital to the war job.

During this critical period it is more than ever the part of good and prudent citizenship to remember

1. That permission to burn in or near woodland or where fire may be communicated to woodland must be secured from the forest fire warden when the ground is not covered with snow.
2. To be careful when smoking in or near the woods and not to throw lighted cigars, cigarettes or matches from moving vehicles.
3. To notify your local warden promptly of any fires you see.
4. That fire prevention is the best and cheapest fire insurance.
5. To be fire-minded ; be careful ; be cooperative and thus help your warden prevent forest fires. This is patriotism at work.

The 1942 fire record for our town follows :

Number of fires, 1 R.R. fire.

Number of permits issued—34.

JOHN H. GILLINGHAM,
Forest Fire Warden

WHITE PINE BLISTER RUST

Irrespective of war demands there are certain public activities which should not be disregarded. Among these is the preservation and protection of forests from fire and diseases such as the white pine blister rust. Control of this disease has always been important to this estate because of the high value of white pine. In normal times approximately 70 per cent of the lumber cut in New Hampshire has been white pine and its logging, milling and manufacture employ thousands of men. As a cash asset it is one of the most valuable crops grown upon the farm.

The war effort has again increased tremendously the demand for white pine. Post war needs for reconstruction will call for continued use of white pine.

Extensive lumbering operations, following the 1938 hurricane, have materially reduced the volume of available merchantable growth. This present depletion will be further increased following the war. Remaining white pine stands will consist principally of young and medium growth. It is such growth that needs protection because it is most susceptible to the white pine blister rust.

In New Hampshire the control of this disease has been conducted through cooperation with towns and cities, individual pine owners, the federal government and the state. Since 1933 the federal government has, through WPA, supplied by far the greater proportion of the funds used in blister rust control. Now that WPA funds are no longer available it becomes more definitely the obligation of the towns and the state together to match the regular funds which the federal government has made available since 1918 in order to continue this important work. The two main objectives at the present time are (1) to establish initial control on those pine areas never covered, and (2) to re-examine the areas first worked more than five years ago in order that control may be maintained.

With 90 per cent of the white pine areas already given initial protection, maintenance of control on the areas once covered and reeradication where necessary can only be attained by rechecking to bring about a safe reduction in the population of currant and gooseberry bushes, which spread this disease to the white pines.

This department is not unmindful of the labor problem which may arise in some towns. However, this may be solved by the use of a few well trained travelling crews in towns where labor is not available.

With all due consideration of the trying and difficult problems now before us it is recommended that an article be inserted in the town warrant and the amount of $400.00 be included in the town budget for continuing the control of white pine blister rust and thereby receive the usual state and federal aid.

It is important that this letter be read at town meeting prior to action upon this matter.

Very truly yours,

JOHN H. FOSTER,
State Forester.

The initial control in Newbury was completed in 1931. 242,596 currant and gooseberry bushes were destroyed .

A portion of the 1931 appropriation was available to start re-checking the towns land area. This rechecking work necessary to destroy those bushes which have grown from the seed of the parent bushes is a protection of the town's original investment in this protective work. 1,338 acres have been re-examined. This work of rechecking should be continued this year.

Every effort will be made to reduce the amount of territory needing examination through the elimination of the non-pine areas.

The above table shows a distinct drop in the number of pupils attending the schools of the district. An equally marked decline will be shown in the next report. There is little change in the other items of the table. The total number of pupils residing in the district and attending public schools was 78 of whom 18 were high school students in Newport, Sunapee, Warner and Austin-Cate Academy. On account of the small number of pupils at Baker Hill that school was not opened in September, 1942, and the pupils were transported to the other two schools.

In the spring of 1942 the old chemical toilets at the South School were replaced by flush toilets. The two school buildings now in use in the district are among the best equipped one-room schools of the state.

The most important factor in the education of our children is the teacher. Good teachers should be retained whenever possible, especially during these times of scarcity of teachers. Provision should be made in the budget for an increase in teacher's salaries in sufficient amount to make the position attractive. Not only have salaries markedly increased in the larger towns, but work in plants producing defense materials pays more than the teacher receives. However, most teachers prefer to continue teaching and our greatest competition comes from larger districts.

We wish to thank the School Board, parents, and teachers for their interest and help in forwarding the educational work of the district.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. SINCLAIR,

Superintendent of Schools.
